TERMS

Non-Warranty.—We give no warranty as to description, quality, or productiveness of any of the seeds, plants, or bulbs, and will not be in any way responsible for the crop, and every order for articles named in this Catalogue will be on these conditions only. It must, however, be plain to every one who gives the matter the slightest thought that it is to our interests to send out only such stock as will not only grow, but prove true to name and description.

Order Early.—It will greatly facilitate shipments if orders are sent in early, and it will have the added advantage of there being no possibility of varieties being exhausted.

Terms.—Our terms are strictly cash with order. We cannot open accounts for the things listed in this Catalogue.

Packing.—No charge is made for boxing and packing on shipments which are going a distance.

Remittance.—Remittance should be made by Registered Letter, Postoffice or Express Money Order, or by Check. Do not send coins by mail unless in a coin card, nor paper money in an ordinary letter. We cannot be responsible for remittances made in this way.

HYACINTHS

FRENCH ROMAN

This dainty white blossom is the true "Christmas Hyacinth"—even a child planting these will succeed. Potted any time between September 15th and October 25th can be forced for Xmas.

Selected bulbs, 5 cents each; 50 cents per dozen. Postage, 6 cents per dozen.

DUTCH HYACINTHS

Our special Bedding Mixture has given satisfaction in any soil, and we recommend it particularly for cemetery work, as the trusses are not so heavy and in consequence are not so liable to be broken off.

Five cents each; 50 cents per doz. Postage, 7 cents per doz.

MEDIUM SIZED BULBS

Ida.—Fine, rich yellow.

Gertrude.—Deep pink.

King of the Blues.—Dark blue.

Alba Superbissima.—Large bells; white.

Grand Maitre.—Porcelain blue.

La Grandesse.—Beautiful snow white.

Baron von Thuyt.—Light pink.

Roi Des Belges.—Red.

7 cents each; 65c per dozen. Postage, 7 cents.

NAMED DUTCH HYACINTHS

Our Extra Size Bulbs, either for forcing in dirt or water, or if a very fine show is desired outdoors, any of the varieties below, either in one color or a mixture, are sure to give satisfaction. We have tested all of these for seven years, and never had them fail.

Gertrude.—Deep pink.

Ligantea.—Large trusses; very light pink.

Roi Des Belges.—Red.

Alba Superbissima.—Large bells; white.

Grande Maitre.—Porcelain blue.

Queen of the Pinks.—Immense pink trusses.

Yellow Hammer.—Extra full trusses; golden yellow.

King of the Yellows.—Very late yellow.

15 cents each; $1.25 per doz.; 10 cents postage.

TULIPS

After several years' trial on our experiment grounds, we have found the varieties here listed the best for the Piedmont section:

SINGLE EARLY TULIPS

Fine mixture for outdoor planting.

Fifteen cents per dozen; $1.00 per 100. Postage, 6 cents.

COTTAGE GARDEN TULIPS

Late blooming, the best kind for cemetery planting, as they can be left in the ground for three or four years.

Twenty cents per doz.; $1.50 per 100. Postage, 6 cents per doz.

DARWIN TULIPS, MIXED

These are late Tulips, blooming in May, with extra long stems—fine for permanent planting.

Twenty-five cents per doz. Postage, 6 cents.

NAMED SINGLE TULIPS

	Per dozen.
Pottebakker.—White	35c
Pottebakker.—Scarlet	35c
Chrysolora.—Yellow	25c
Duchesse de Parma.—Orange and red.....	25c

Postage, per dozen, 6 cents.

NAMED DOUBLE TULIPS

	Per dozen.
Rubra Maxima.—Deep red.....	35c
Imperator Rubrorum.—Scarlet	35c
Vuurbach.—Dazzling red.....	35c
Tea Rose.—The color of a Marechal Niel Rose..	50c
Lucretia.—Deep rose	50c
Marriage de Ma Fille.....	50c

Of all the double Tulips this has surpassed every variety with us. When fully open they measure across five inches, and stems are twelve to eighteen inches. The color is carmine striped white. Postage, per dozen, 7 cents.

JONQUILS

The earliest blooming of all bulbs, except the Crocus. Fifteen cents per dozen; $1.25 per 100. Postage, per dozen 6 cents.

Out from their straight green leaves,
The yellow Jonquils peep—
Hark! calling low and clear,
The Jonquil Fairy hear—
“Come! Come!” You lazy flowers,
Wake from your winter sleep,
'Tis time to up and grace the bowers,
Where lovers soon their trysts will keep.

DAFFODILS

“He that hath two loaves of bread,
Let him sell one and buy a Daffodil,
For one is food for the body,
But the other is food for the soul.”

Spurius.—Immense deep golden; perianth and trumpet the same.

Henry Irving.—Trumpet very wavy; one of the early blooming varieties.

Sir Watkin.—Small trumpet and large perianth; a beautiful shade of yellow; blooms just before Emperor.

Emperor.—Perianth primrose, trumpet yellow; blooms about the end of March.

Empress.—Perianth white, trumpet yellow; blooms a little later than Emperor.

Five cents each; 40 cents per dozen. Postage, 8 cents.

PAPER WHITE NARCISSUS

No one should be without a pot or bowl of these bulbs. The price puts them in every one's reach, and their easy culture is another advantage.

Six for 15 cents; 25 cents per dozen. Postage, 7 cents per dozen.

SOLEIL DO'R

Commonly known as the Yellow Paper White; can be grown either in soil or water.

Twenty five cents per dozen; 7 cents postage.

CHINESE SACRED LILY

This is the Narcissus orientalis, and is called variously Soy Sin Far, Joss Flower, and Flower of the Gods. This may be grown in pots of earth, but are more interesting and very satisfactory in bowls partially filled with pebbles and water. As the roots develop, they form a network about the pebbles, thus supporting the plant when in bloom. The flowers are mostly white with yellow cups, and are very fragrant.

Ten cents each; 3 for 25 cents. -By mail, 8 cents each.

SPANISH IRIS

These beautiful flowers, once planted and left undisturbed, in a few years make large clumps, and the stems seem to increase with age of bulb. We have picked flowers with 24-inch stems from bulbs planted five years ago. The colors are beautiful, and in large places we cannot recommend a better bulb, not only for its beauty, but its inexpensiveness. Good mixture, 10 cents per doz.; $1.00 per 100.

Varieties.

British Queen.—Pure white.

Darling.—Deep Blue.

Cajanus.—Golden yellow.

Louise.—Light blue.

Two cents each; 20 cents per doz.; $1.50 per 100. Mailed free.

GERMAN IRIS

This is the old-fashioned and well-known, perfectly hardy "Flag."

Purple—10 cents each; $1.00 per doz.

White—5 cents each; 50 cents per doz.

White, with Lavender stripes—10 cents.

Yellow—10 cents.

Postage each, 5 cents.

JAPANESE IRIS

This beautiful Iris, is particularly suited to our rural customers, who have creeks or springs on their land, as they revel in a damp spot, each year improving, and making large clumps.

25 cents and 50 cents a clump. Postage, 10 cents.

CROCUS

Best suited for planting in lawns and borders, where they can remain for years undisturbed.

Ten cents per dozen. Mailed free.

FREESIA

The gracefully branched, fragrant flowers are of long duration, and, being freely produced, are profitable for commercial purposes and satisfactory to amateurs. If planted early, they may be had in bloom by Christmas. Plant eight or ten bulbs in a six-inch bulb-pan, covering them one inch. The peculiar habit of the Freesia, its delicious perfume and great value for cutting have made this flower immensely popular and growing more so as it becomes better known. Freesia, mammoth flowered, 25 cents per dozen. Mailed free.

LEUCOJUM

The old-fashioned "Snow Drop," rarely seen nowadays—but we have a good stock of this beautiful bulb, and every one should have a clump of them. Similar to the Lily of the Valley bloom.

Twenty-five cents per dozen. Postage, 8 cents.

EASTER LILY BULBS

Owing to the late Easter in 1916, every one should be able to bloom their own bulbs. We will have a fine lot in the two best varieties for home use.

Gigantium—Grows a medium height, 25 cents each.

Formosum—Much taller, good for church work, 25 cents each.

Postage, 6 cents.

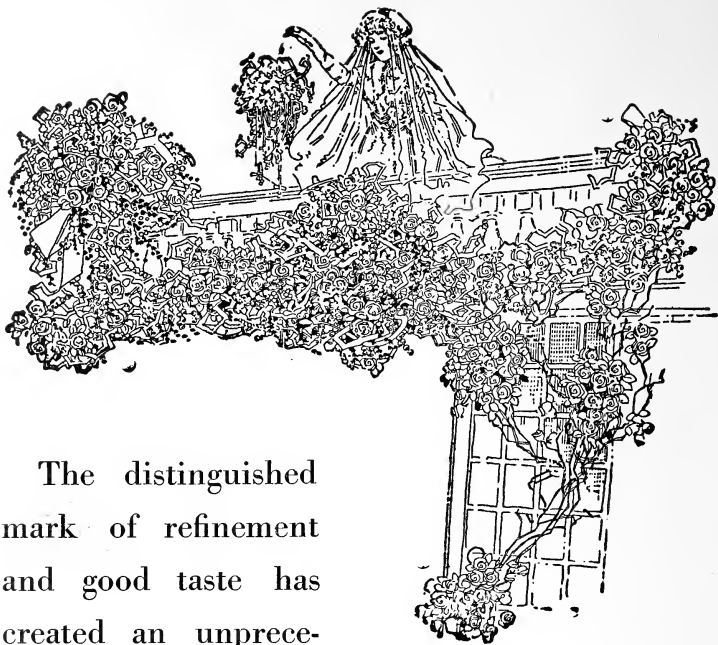

HARDY JAPANESE LILIES

Lilium Album.—White blooms, five to ten blooms to the stalk, 18 cents each.

Lilium Magnificum.—Very deep pink, 25 cents each.

Lilium Auratum.—The golden banded Lily of Japan, very beautiful and heavily scented, 20 cents each. Postage, 6 cents.
